Do you have any criminal convictions (excluding motoring offences) for which a fine or other penalty was imposed?

Yes

No

When undertaking the Chartered Banker MBA programme students are subject to the rules and regulations of both Bangor University and the Chartered Banker Institute, Scotland. Under the Institute's Code of Professional Conduct, certain criminal convictions may preclude a student gaining or retaining Chartered status. Please bear in mind that should you be subject to any criminal investigations, investigations by a regulator or other competent body or be dismissed by your employers for misconduct during your studies, these must be declared to the CBMBA office and Chartered Banker Institute as this may have a bearing on your ability to complete the programme and / or gain Chartered Status.

15. Registration for student membership of the Chartered Banker Institute

Membership of the Chartered Banker Institute is aimed at helping individuals working within the banking and financial services sector achieve and sustain the highest standards of professionalism. The Chartered Banker Institute is the only body in the World able to confer eligible members with the professional designation Chartered Banker. On successful completion of the Chartered Banker MBA programme (by any route other than Certificate, Diploma or Single Module), candidates qualify for Chartered Banker status (MCIBS). Chartered Banker status can only be used where membership is maintained through the Chartered Banker Institute:

- Student Membership is £60
- Chartered Banker status is £120 per annum

Candidates must comply with the rules of the membership applicable at the time, including the Institute's code of Professional Conduct as well as meet the requirements for the related scheme for continuing professional development. Further information relating to your membership can be found on the Institute's website.

Declaration

Please tick here to confirm that you have read and understood the Chartered Banker Institute's code of Professional Conduct and that you agree to maintain high standards of professional excellence as well as continually develop your skills and knowledge. Please also note that all fees paid to the institute are non-refundable.

Agree

Shortly after your registration onto the Chartered Banker MBA programme with Bangor University you will be contacted directly by the institute with your student membership information.
